

St. Joseph's College, New York President

The Board of Trustees of St. Joseph's College, New York (SJC) invites nominations and applications for the position of President. It is expected that the successful appointee will begin duties on July 1, 2017.

With three distinct campuses located in Brooklyn, Long Island and Online, SJC has been dedicated to providing a diverse population of students in the New York metropolitan area with an affordable education rooted in the liberal arts tradition since 1916. Independent and coeducational, the College provides a strong academic and value-oriented education at the undergraduate and graduate levels, aiming to prepare each student for a life characterized by integrity, intellectual and spiritual values, social responsibility and service — lives that are worthy of the College's motto: Esse non videri — "To be, not to seem." Through SJC Brooklyn, SJC Long Island and SJC Online, the College offers more than 49 majors, special course offerings and certificates, affiliated and pre-professional programs.

SJC seeks a proven and inclusive leader firmly committed to the Mission of the institution. Candidates should demonstrate progressively responsible leadership experience, appropriate academic credentials and a 21st century understanding of the liberal arts and professional programs at the undergraduate and graduate levels. He/she must also be student-centered and committed to student success and character formation. The Presidential position also requires the ability to raise significant funds to increase SJC's current endowment, as well as effectively manage its approximately $115 million budget. The successful candidate will demonstrate an inclusive and collegial communication style, value team-building and collaboration and practice effective interpersonal skills that will build upon positive relationships with SJC's three campuses.
